

RESOURCES 4 CHILDREN, LLC

Presents

WRIGHTSLAW: Special Education Law & Advocacy Training Program

Featuring: Pete Wright

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19th, 2015
BROOKDALE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
WARNER STUDENT LIFE CENTER
LINCROFT, NJ

Who Should Attend: Parents, Advocates,
Attorneys and Education Professionals

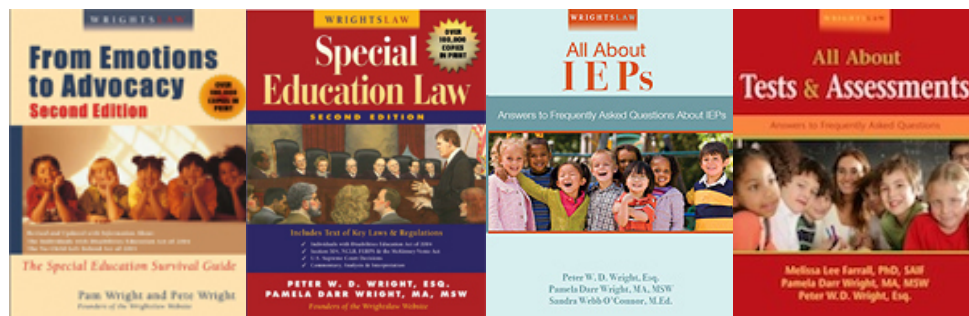

This one day, six hour program focuses on four areas:

- Special Education law, rights and responsibilities
- Tests and Measures to measure progress and regression
- SMART IEPs
- Introduction to tactics and strategies for effective advocacy

Pete Wright is an accomplished special education attorney, law professor, author and advocate whose passion for advocacy grew out of his own personal educational experiences. Pete represented Shannon Carter before the U. S. Supreme Court in Florence County School District Four v. Shannon Carter, 510 U.S. 7 (1993), winning a unanimous decision on Shannon's behalf. His website, Wrightslaw, is the #1 ranked website about education law, special education law, and special education advocacy.

Registration fee includes continental breakfast, lunch, and four Wrightslaw books

For more information and to register see:

<http://www.resources4children.com/wrightslaw.html>