

PUMC INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

Workweek

- If the AA Public Schools are closed for the day due to weather, the office and building are closed for the entire day (no afternoon or evening activities unless otherwise notified or posted on the website, see "Evenings" below).
- If the AA Public Schools close early due to weather, the office and building close for the rest of the day (no afternoon or evening activities).
- If the AA Public Schools are open, but after-school and evening activities are canceled, the buildings and all activities after 4:00 p.m. are canceled.
- If any of the above occurs, outside groups (those not related to the ministry of PUMC, but just using our building) are NOT to meet.
- If the AA Public Schools are closed, PELC will be closed.
- If the AA Public Schools are delayed or close early, PELC will be delayed or will close early. Please check the PELC website for further info:

Links to AA County School closings and delays:

- Anne Arundel County Public Schools Website.
- WBALTV Channel 11 - Closings and Delays
- WJZTV Channel 13 - Closings and Delays

Evenings

In the event that the weather clears by evening and the staff member or church group leader feels an absolute need to meet, they will contact the other members of their group. (See below to have an announcement posted on our website.) Otherwise, you can assume there is no meeting, rehearsal, etc. Please be advised that the parking lot may not be clear!

Saturday

In the event of inclement weather on Saturday, the staff member or church group leader will make the judgment call and contact their group members. (See below to have an announcement posted on our website.) Please be advised that the parking lot may not be clear!

Sunday

In the event of inclement weather on Sunday, the pastor will make the judgment call. The decision will be made by 6:00 AM. If you do not see a notice of cancellation on the website, then church services will be held. Please be advised that the parking lot may not be clear!