It may amend, repeal or make additions thereto when two-thirds of the members present at a Stated Conclave shall so order by their vote, provided that such proposition to amend, repeal or to add additional By-Laws shall have been submitted in writing at a previous Stated Conclave, and subject to the approval thereof as above provided.

Sec 575. RULES AND FORMS OF PROCEDURE--The Rules and Forms of Procedure in matters of discipline, in controversies between Commanderies, and for trials and punishments, are subject to such regulations as the Grand Encampment may provide, or the Grand Commandery prescribe. The general rules applicable to Masonic discipline, not in conflict with the Regulations of the Grand Encampment, may be used in this jurisdiction.

Grand Enc. Stat. Sec 209 See Disciplinary Rules, Grand Enc. Stat.

Sec 576. FORMS AND RECORD BOOKS--The Forms and Record Books to be used by constituent Commanderies shall be furnished by direction of the Grand Recorder with approval of the Board of Control. The Grand Recorder is hereby authorized, with the approval of the Board of Control, to designate an Official Printer who shall, upon application, furnish these Forms and Record Books. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent Commanderies from having Forms and Record Books printed elsewhere if they meet with the requirements of the Grand Recorder and the Board of Control. Provided, further, however, that card form receipt for dues must be ordered from the Grand Recorder.

Sec 577. ANNUAL REPORT--An Annual Report in such form as the Grand Recorder may prescribe, shall be made for each Commandery by its Recorder, showing the names of the officers and members of the Commandery, and all changes in membership, and also the Orders conferred, the date of each and on whom conferred. The report shall be made as of December 31st and transmitted to the Grand Recorder on or before January 31st, together with the per capita tax and any special assessments. Any Commandery failing to comply with both requirements shall not be entitled to representation in the Stated Grand Conclave following such failure, and the Grand Recorder shall not issue credentials for such representation. (1972)

Sec 578. UNIFORMS--The members of the Commandery shall be clothed when on duty, in Templar uniform. Each Officer, when on duty, shall bear the insignia of his rank, as prescribed by the Grand Encampment, and be clothed in the Templar uniform and equipment adopted by this Grand Commandery. No one shall be permitted to appear on duty in public, or in any procession or take part in any parade or other public ceremony, except for church attendance and funerals, who is not, at the time, in Templar uniform. The uniform as adopted by this Grand Commandery and shown in the proceedings of its 85th Annual Conclave, May 12, 1954, and as further adopted and set forth in the Appendix of the Statutes of this Grand Commandery, 1927, shall be the prescribed uniform of this Grand Jurisdiction. In lieu of the regulation Templar uniform, a constituent Commandery may adopt the use of the Cap and Mantle as described in the addenda to the 1987 Edition of the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America, Section 41 (i), A, B, C, D, and E as their official uniform. These can be worn for all Templar occasions, provided that when appearing in public, the entire Commandery must be dressed in like manner--either in Uniform or all in Cap and Mantle. Each commander shall be charged with the duty of seeing that no uniform is purchased by any member of his Commandery, which is not strictly in conformity with every detail of the provisions of the regulations of dress and equipment of this Grand Jurisdiction and the Grand Encampment.
