

Bernard Cory (Corey)
1826

Bernard Cory, son of John Cory and Elizabeth Fallon Cory was born in Ireland, July 11 1826 , Bernard immigrated to the United States about 1847 and settled in Staten Island, Richmond County, New York.

In 1848 he married Elizabeth Connolly, who was born also in Ireland about 1830. It appears they were married in St. Peter's RC Church in New Brighton, Staten Island.

They had issue.

1.	Cory, John	Born Richmond County	April 01 1849
2.	Cory, Martha	Richmond County	July 10 1852
3.	Cory, William James	Richmond County	Mar. 13 1853
4.	Cory, Mary Elizabeth	Richmond County	June 07 1856
5.	Cory, Mark Martin	Richmond County	Dec. 10 1859
6.	Cory, Catherine	Richmond County	April 14 1861

Bernard was a Jobber and a Gardner on Staten Island. From records obtained, it is apparent that Bernards wife died prior to 1880, but no certificates has been located, as yet.

Bernard died at 58 Broad Street in Stapleton, SI on July 13 1898, NYC Certificate Number S-573. He was interned in St Peter's Cem, New Brighton on July 15 1898. The "Cory" name was changed to "Corey" around the birth of Bernards first son, John in 1849. It is apparent that Bernard was related to "Joseph Cory" who's family also lived on Staten Island in the Rosebank area and many of that family is buried in St. Mary's RC Church Cemetery in Arrochar.
