Doniphan Reunion

Come share your life's journey in a community willing to Follow the Spirit. Lake Doniphan Reunion offers many opportunities for worship and fellowship in a safe, accessible setting. This camp experience may bring you closer to God, nature, and humanity; while participating in a program designed for all ages and abilities. This year's program opportunities include an intergenerational service, small group discussions, pre-baptismal class, archery, fishing, swimming, boating, crafts for all ages (fused glass, 3D printing, relief painting and more), CPR training, campfire, story time, music, dancing, talent show, recreational sports and others. Camp opens 4pm Sunday, June 23, and closes 4pm Thursday, June 27. Hear Apostle Janné Grover at 10:30 on Monday and Wednesday and Director of Graceland Seminary, Seventy Zac McLaughlin at 10:30 on Tuesday. We look forward to spending time with you this year!

Chihowa Reunion

You are invited! You are called! You are welcomed! Come join us in fun, fellowship, and faith we live together in community at Chihowa Reunion 2019. Richard Betts, Generosity Team Leader for Community of Christ World Church, will share with us as we delve deeper into this year's theme: "Following the Spirit." The week promises to be filled with activities and worship services for ALL ages – for the young AND the less-young and everywhere in between! Be prepared for trying some new things (I can't give away all the surprises yet) as well as enjoying some of our Chihowa traditions – baptismal service, talent show, an evening of rest and rejuvenation, fishing, swimming, children and adult classes, small groups, paddle boating, and more. Even if you can't stay all week, we would love for you to come out and share with us in this sacred community. So take the first step in "Following the Spirit" and register today! Camp check-in is 3:00 – 4:45 Sunday, July 7th and camp closes Friday, July 12th at noon. We look forward to reunion with you!

Women's Retreat @ The Highlands
