

24 Hour Crisis Shelters

Crisis Nursery (Saskatoon)

Home away from home for children whose families encounter a crisis. If there is no alternative care available, parents may leave their children while the problem is being solved.

1020 Victoria Avenue, Saskatoon, SK

306-242-2433

info@crisisnursey.ca

Interval House (Saskatoon)

An emergency temporary shelter for women and their children who require safe accommodation.

721 Victoria Ave, Saskatoon, SK

306-244-0185

Isabel Johnson Shelter (Regina)

Safe place to stay while you work through future plans—and a place to turn to by phone if you need someone to talk to about the abuse you have experienced. To set up your stay, or for support and guidance by phone, call 306-525-2141 and ask to speak to a shelter worker.

North East Outreach and Support Services(Melfort)

North East Outreach and Support Services enhances the safety and wellness, and nurtures personal growth of individuals and families affected by domestic and sexualized violence in North Eastern Saskatchewan. Phone: 306-752-9455

The YWCA Prince Albert

Whether you are a woman fleeing family violence, a family needing transitional or emergency housing, or you are a Newcomer to Canada or the Prince Albert area, we are the place to come. Since 1912 we have been a leading provider of housing and services for the most vulnerable people in our community. Check out what we have to offer.

1895 Central Avenue Prince Albert, SK S6V 4W8

Phone: (306) 763 8571

Prince Albert Safe Shelter

923 7 St E, Prince Albert, SK S6V 6T3

(306) 764-7233

Qu'appelle Haven Safe Shelter

136 Pasqua Ave S
Fort Qu Appelle, SK S0G 1S0, Canada

Phone: (306) 332-6881