Responding to Family Issues SEMINAR #28:

Purpose: The Responding to Family Issues creates a plan for future use in how the family will collectively respond to an issue.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Instructions	Bereavement not a process with step by step path for a family to consider when developing their response in how to best create a solution. Complete each step below to formulate your possible family course of action.
	Identify the Issue	First, identify what issue you are seeking to address. Write what you know about the issue. Then proceed.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Complete Family Transformational Response (F.T.R.)	Complete each section in the F.T.R. worksheet using your identified issue. This seminar reviews what is included Family Member Part of the Dialog when reviewing NARCAN. Which of these will the family member need to seek help in solving?
<input type="checkbox"/>	Complete Family Value Based Decision -Making Model	In the Family Value Based Decision-Making Model worksheet complete each section, then take that information and use it as your decision on what you will do collectively as a response to this issue.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Key Topic #1: What is NARCAN	Your family members will seek to identify their own level contributing to the preparedness of the family to respond in an overdose situation.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Key Topic #2: How does NARCAN work	Knowing how something works is a confidence building exercise. We want to be confident in what to do if an overdose should occur. Therefore, we should know how NRCAN works and how it is administered. .
<input type="checkbox"/>	Key Topic #3: When to use NARCAN	At the time that NARCAN is needed, is not the time to figure out how it is used or when. Taking the time now will give each family member enough knowledge to respond at an appropriate level.
	Purpose:	The Responding to Family Issues creates a plan for future use in how the family will collectively respond to an issue.
