The club president or his/her designee shall preside over all club meetings. Club officers present at each meeting shall maintain order at the meetings.

ARTICLE V

Power Vested in the Club:

The control of the club shall be vested in its Leadership.

Making a Motion:

Any eligible member may make a motion, and then must be seconded by another member before it can be presented for a vote. A majority vote of eligible members attending the meeting will be necessary for a motion to pass, but if not in the best interest of the business can be overruled by leadership.

ARTICLE VI

Club Officers: Elections shall be held in the January Meeting for the following positions only: Secretary, Newsletter editor, and Cruise director.

Eligibility for Officers will be limited to members whose dues are current prior to elections.

Officers may hold the same office with no term limits.

In the event of the loss of an officer who cannot fulfill an entire term, officers will nominate from the existing membership to fill that position until the next election term and will bring that nomination before the club membership.

Officers will meet throughout the year as needed to discuss club business, events, etc. For any officer decision, including but not limited to, event scheduling, disputes, etc., the majority vote of the officers will stand as the final decision.

Committees: Committees will be formed throughout the year to run various club activities. These committees usually include but are not limited to volunteer club members who have an interest in or knowledge of the activity for which that committee formed.

Committee members will meet as needed to discuss activity or event issues. As with the officers, a majority vote of the committed shall stand in settling disputes, rescheduling of events, activities during the events, and rules for the events that do not override the Club Membership Rules stated herein. That final decision shall then be presented to the club officers for authorization.

Financial decisions shall not be enacted until voted upon and passed by club officers.

In the event of the loss of a committee member who cannot fulfill their duties, committee members will ask for a volunteer to fill that position.
