Last Week's Run Report

Hare;- Cock Hunter

Location; Savoia Pizza Baker St South Fremantle

With The Moon In The Sky Like A Big Pizza Pie

Great occasion as Cockhunter set her first trail. Cool - ish evening with a full - ish moon Not a huge turnout at the start, with concerns that Splash was missing, but gathered at the pizza parlour full of anticipation for our first run of 2018. The runners were just aching to get going and we were informed that there was only one trail, so be sharp and look for Freo 6 markings.

Off we ventured with plenty of twists and turns and for walkers at least, easy to follow the runners as they went every which way At some point that escapes me, the runners shot off and number of walkers was markedly reduced ????? Never mind, the sensible ones kept the Hare in view at all times, especially when she was concerned she had slightly mislaid the trail ! (read LOST)

However, dear reader, fear not for we found our way back to the beautifully laid out tables and SPLASH had arrived !!! As there had not been a drink stop, this was essential. Circle called, there were mixed scores for the run as some say the trail was sparsely marked but overall it came in at 15 - 16 out of 20. Not a bad effort for a virgin. The SURPRISE R A (not as dainty as the actual R A !) jumped out of the background with usual charges for latecomers & late Splash delivery. (apparently Bellboy's fault ...) Charges from the floor were nonsensical but worthy for people being cheap (Pink Bits) - Nilly Willy for just being - Franga for being too athletic and not wearing the dummy-spit shorts on trail. There were others but we moved on to awards - ????????? got up to ????? runs so was presented with a badge

Jokers and true story tellers came and went, we sang the F6 song (badly) and settled in for Pizza's and salads. Delish

REMINDER We are coming up to AGPU so prepare yourselves for the rush to get positions on the Committee - Please form an orderly queue or just put your hand up. We need you

On - On
