who is a physical therapist (PT) licensed by the Physical Therapy Board of California.  Under California law, you may continue to receive direct physical therapy treatment services for a period of up to 45 calendar days or 12 visits, which occurs first, after which time a physical therapist may continue providing you physical therapy treatment services only after receiving, from a person hold physician and surgeon's certificate issued by the Medical Board of Californithe Osteopathic Medical Board of California, or from a person holding a cert to practice podiatric medicine from the California Board of Podiatric Medical acting within his or her scope of practice, a dated signature on the physical therapist's plan of care indicating approval of the physical therapist's plan of and that an in-person patient examination and evaluation was conducted by physician and surgeon or podiatrist.	You are receiving direc	et physical therapy treatr	nent services from an individual treatment services for a period of up to 45 calendar days or 12 visits, which occurs first, after which time a physical therapist may continue providing you physical therapy treatment services only after receiving, from a person hold physician and surgeon's certificate issued by the Medical Board of Californ the Osteopathic Medical Board of California, or from a person holding a cert to practice podiatric medicine from the California Board of Podiatric Medical acting within his or her scope of practice, a dated signature on the physical therapist's plan of care indicating approval of the physical therapist's plan of and that an in-person patient examination and evaluation was conducted by	who is a physical thera
	-		-
Patient Signature Printed Name Date	acting within his or her therapist's plan of care and that an in-person pa	scope of practice, a date indicating approval of t atient examination and e	ed signature on the physical he physical therapist's plan of ca acting within his or her therapist's plan of care and that an in-person pa physician and surgeon	scope of practice, a date indicating approval of the atient examination and early podiatrist.	ed signature on the physical he physical therapist's plan of caevaluation was conducted by the