

Chaperone Policy

A chaperone can be available for all medical examinations. This will be offered to all female applicants on booking the appointment, but is available for all.

The chaperone will normally be my wife Valerie Mitchell, but clients are welcome to bring their own friend or relation.

Please make the need for a chaperone known at the time of booking, as otherwise the option may not be available.