Celebrating Thirty Years - A Look Back At Past Presidents

PPQG is celebrating 30 years so we're asking our past presidents to share their memories of when they held office. Isobel Meekins served as President June 2001-2003. Here's what she had to say:

How long have you been a members of PPQG?

Since 1995

What big event happened during your term as President?

We had a terrific Symposium chaired by Lois Bates. We also hosted VCQ for a fun day of quilting classes, vendor shopping and fellowship.

Share a favorite memory during your term?

The way we all came together as a quilting family after 9/11/01 helped us all make through those terrible days.

What service projects do you remember doing under your terms as President?

We made quilts for Peninsula Agency on Aging which we delivered through Meals on Wheels program.

Approximately how many PPQG members were there?

325-350

How long have you been quilting and what is your favorite kind of quilting?

I've been quilting since 1993. I prefer to machine piece (especially foundation piecing) and machine quilt. I also enjoy designing my own quilts and quilt patterns.

Upcoming Guild Workshops! Save the Dates for the following:

- Gretchen Martin
 - Machine Appliqué

16 April 2015

Toni Wood and Sharon Ahmed
 45 & 60 degree angles
 7 May 2015

Classes are held at Grafton Christian Church 9 a.m. to noon.

Contact: Sharon Ahmed @ 969-1538 to sign-up!

What do you hope to see happen in the future of PPQG?

I would like to see the guild grow, reaching out to more new quilters and community members to promote quilting.

Quilting Quips and Quotes

You Know You're a Quilter When...

..... you work for a year on a quilt and then give it away.

..... you watch TV with a needle in your hand.

..... there is a sale on thread and you buy 10 spools... all in white 100% cotton.

..... you buy 5 packages of needles... and they're all the same size.

..... you use the word "between" more often as a noun than as a preposition.

.....you happily spend all day prewashing quilt fabric but when it comes to doing "real" laundry, you procrastinate til everyone is on their last pair of undies and socks.

.....when your 3 year old knows what an Ohio Star is and looks forward to finding fabric in the mail as much as you do.

.....you insist that the floor tiles in your new den are 12" square, so you can lay your quilt top or backing down and square it up perfectly.

.....Your sewing room is the gathering room of the house, not the family room.

.....You have no qualms about driving for 2-3 hours just to see a quilt show or go to a quilt store.

.....You start saving those jeans the kids outgrow instead of donating them. They will make an excellent jean quilt someday.

.....When you get meat at the store, you cut out the good parts of the freezer paper and save it.

.....your non quilting friends start sending you cards with quilts on them because they know you'd like it.

.....People are constantly picking threads off your shoulders, out of your hair, off your back, etc.

..... when your mind associates the number 13 with a needle size instead of "Friday the...".

..... the 5/8" seam allowances used on patterns for clothing look EXACTLY 2 1/2 times too big.

.....You look at fabric clothing in charity stores and garage sales, but not with the idea of wearing it.

....."Featherweight" doesn't mean a boxer.
