Pastoral Letter

We are spending the fourth Sunday since we began offering online worship services. When I was in the church for the food pantry, I met our church members who came for a walk on the trail. And I asked them to join our online Sunday worship and let them know how to access the online services. However, they were unaware of our online services. During the past four Sundays, about 14 families on average joined, and I deeply appreciated them remembering the Lord's Day and celebrating it with me. But still, we have more than half of our families who do not know and never join. If you have those in your family or in your close church members, please invite them to our online service and let us keep staying connected.

As I announced in the mailed card and during the sermon, we will have an online prayer meeting in the morning (6am) during the passion week, online Easter Sunrise service (6:20am) and Easter service (11am) next Sunday. I invite all of you to all online meetings and services. See you tomorrow morning!

Announcements
