Declarer Play: Avoid the Danger

Start your morning with some coffee and a very special bridge lesson from NABC champion and ABTA master teacher Kevin Wilson. Through a focused, interactive discussion and presentation, you will learn new skills to enhance your bridge game. The lessons will be presented on BBO using the voice functionality in a special room. It will also be simulcast on Zoom video if you have any issues with hearing on BBO.

New Minor Forcing – talks about the issues in choosing strain and the need for forcing bids. You will see examples of the problem so that you will understand and apply the convention correctly.

Raising Partner's Preempts – gives you guidelines for bidding and a knowledge of the strategies that will make you a more difficult opponent.

Declarer Play – The skill of establishing your long suits may seem simple but after this seminar you will do it with confidence and understand how entries affect your declaring decisions.

Declarer Play – Avoidance play is one of the most common techniques a declarer can employ to disrupt and frustrate the defense. Learn hold up plays, the Rule of 7, and the Bath Coup!

One payment of $30 will get you access to all four lessons. They will occur each Monday morning over four consecutive weeks.

There are four ways to pay for this event:
