ABOUT THE COURSE

Crystal therapy is an ancient healing system concerned with treating patients holistically through the precise placement of crystals on the body and the surrounding room. This means that, unlike Western healthcare (which tends to focus on treating one symptom/ailment at a time) crystal therapy addresses the patient as a whole - paying as much attention to their spiritual and emotional well-being as to their physical health. 3 There is very little scientific evidence to support the effectiveness of crystal healing on a medical level. However, crystals have been used, revered and enjoyed for many thousands of years - both for their aesthetic beauty and for the peace, relaxation and harmony they seem to invoke. You can train as a crystal therapist with us and practice right and begin bringing a refreshing new way of thinking to people dissatisfied with conventional medical treatment. Crystal therapy is a non-invasive, relaxing, natural and enjoyable process.

The cost of this course is £450 and includes a full printed manual and a beginners set of crystals.

History of crystal healing

The use of crystals as a healing source was believed to be a form of technology inherited from the culture of Atlantis, which was destroyed during the polar shift and magnetic reversal 12,000 years ago.

Choosing crystals

Like human beings that vibrate on their own individual frequency crystals and gemstones also 'vibrate' on their own individual frequency. There are various methods of choosing crystals and they vary from person to person.

Types of crystals

We explore the many configurations of crystals

Cleansing crystals

Having chosen your crystal it is now important that you cleanse it.

Crystal healing

Laying on of crystals

The technique of using crystals on your client's body for healing is called laying on of crystals.

Crystal dowsing

The ancient art of dowsing has been practiced throughout millennia, although the names to identify it may have changed in different cultures and era's, the techniques have not.

Crystal elixir

Crystal elixirs are similar to flower essences in that they are made so they contain the essence of the crystals or gemstones used.

Human aura and Chakras

Although you may think that aura's and Chakras are two separate objects or manifestations, Chakras are a part of an aura and each interpenetrates the other. Chakras are the means through which a physical body communicates with it's aura and vice-versa

Meditation

Through practicing meditation, you can become more centred, balanced and harmonious at all levels of being, therefore, you become a clearer channel through which the energies can freely flow.

Attunement

This development or attunement will consist of a number of factors, including spirituality, awareness, intuitiveness, attunement and sensitivity. It will embrace some, or all of these attributes.

Crystal layouts

A practical session, exploring some suggested crystal grids and layouts.

Ethereal crystal healing

Using this method, you are able to send distance healing.
