Shared Experiences

We enjoyed a delightful March Celebration and are grateful for those who participated physically and spiritually.

Through Ceremony we invited assistance from those of the Earth realm and Cosmic realm to join ONE-TLC thus initiating a greater synergy with the Beings of Planet Earth and Beings in the Cosmic Realm who are of service to the growth and evolution of humanity as well as the Ascension of Planet Earth.

Gathering and Sharing experiences with Divine intentions for the Greatest Good of All assists humanity by raising personal and group frequencies; which can then be received and transmitted through harmonic resonance.

Joke of the Month

HEY DUDE... Does History Repeat Itself?

Message of the Month

The following was channeled by David from a ONE-TLC Board Meeting on March 23, 2015:

Reality

Reality is a handy benchmark that allows you to evaluate where your thinking, beliefs and emotions have/had been. If you can remember that, it will save you a lot of time whereby you might be urged to change a physical reality instead of your thoughts, beliefs, and emotions.

Now... know that you will be presented with a variety of already created multiple realities by other souls, both seen and unseen, that intertwine, overlap and permeate our creation. However, where Your continual thoughts, beliefs, and emotions reside is what eventually becomes your permanent reality along with those of like-mindedness.

You can instantly or very quickly transcend to realities that are conducive to your deepest being-ness with the understanding that, most likely, it will be ecologically orchestrated because of loving agreements previously made with your soul groups or families. That is to say that change is made unconsciously at a group consensus level even though we each create a perception of a separate reality that includes our own body all by ourselves.

This deeper understanding of how things are may give you the pause that refreshes now and forever more.
