

Elder Dennis Chandler's heart for the Lord was evident as an early teen when he and a next-door neighbor would pretend to be pastors at play time.

He grew up in the church and was baptized in the Christ Edmondson United Methodist Church in Baltimore, Maryland, at the age of 13. His passion for service to the Lord became immediately evident when he assumed his first role in the house of the Lord as an acolyte.

In 2011, he was ordained a Deacon at Powerhouse World Ministry in Baltimore, Maryland by Bishop James Winslow and later served as Deacon at Speak to My Heart Ministries where he studied under Bishop Duane Johnson in Baltimore, Maryland. In 2014, he relocated to Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

In 2016, he was ordained an Elder by Pastor Alfred George of Victory Valley Fellowship Church in Oshkosh, Wisconsin and Bishop Herbert D. Haywood of Bread of Life Church in Fond Du Lac, Wisconsin.

Elder Chandler is an impassioned orator of God's Word and is recognized for his unadulterated, down-to-earth teaching which enables people to understand the undeniable truth of the word of God and to apply it to their modern-day struggles. His ministry experience is vast and includes church Board membership, church administration, preaching, biblical ministry counseling and teaching, designing and delivering life-changing bible studies in churches and throughout the community.

Elder Chandler is a vocalist and was trained at the Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore, Maryland. He uses his anointing in a powerful praise and worship ministry. As a community advocate, Elder Chandler volunteers at a local food pantry, a social justice organization and for his neighborhood association where he is known for his evangelism.

Currently, Elder Chandler teaches Bible study at Outagamie Jail. He is a faithful member of Apostolic Pentecostal Assembly. Elder Chandler resides in Oshkosh, Wisconsin with his family.
