Sick & Home bound

To all who may have a sick relative at home, in rehab, hospital or nursing home please notify the Parish office 973-779-4330 so we can arrange a time to visit them.

We must pray without tiring, for the salvation of mankind does not depend upon material success . . . but on Jesus alone.

If you are in danger, if your hearts are confused, turn to Mary; she is our comfort, our help; turn towards her and you will be saved.

Prayer is powerful!

Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

We had just celebrated the solemnity of All Saints and the Commemoration of All Souls in which we have asked all those already in Heaven to pray for us and we have prayed for all the baptized who have preceded us in death so that the Lord may receive them into His eternal dwellings. This week there is a Federal holiday that keeps in tune with this sentiment – Veterans Day. This holiday is different from Memorial Day in that we pray for all those who have served in any of the wars that have been fought defending freedom. I am very grateful to those who have served in the armed forces defending our freedoms. And I think it is a great opportunity to have time to thank a veteran. Our cemetery has many veterans and it will be very good if you spend a little time thanking them. We will fly for the first time this Monday the flag in our new flagpole in the cemetery in honor of all the veterans buried there.

The Gospel and first reading remind us that there is more than just this earth and this world to be worried about. For this reason, we need to find what is the ultimate truth – God. There is a psychiatrist that I like a lot, Viktor Frankl. He wrote his whole theory of psychotherapy when he was in a concentration camp during World War II. He arrived to the conclusion that if a person found a REASON to LIVE can LIVE almost any how. So, if you have found Christ, you can live in peace everywhere.

Saint Francis de Sales Pray for Us!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

Acabábamos de celebrar la solemnidad de Todos los Santos y la Conmemoración de Todas las Fieles Difuntos en la que les pedimos a todos los que ya estaban en el Cielo que rezaran por nosotros y oramos por todos los bautizados que nos precedieron en la muerte para que el Señor los reciba en sus moradas eternas. Esta semana hay un feriado federal que se mantiene en sintonía con este sentimiento: el Día de los Veteranos. Esta fiesta es diferente del Día de los Caídos en que rezamos por todos aquellos que han servido en cualquiera de las guerras que se han librado defendiendo la libertad. Estoy muy agradecido con aquellos que han servido en las fuerzas armadas defendiendo nuestras libertades. Y creo que es una gran oportunidad para agradecer a un veterano. Nuestro cementerio tiene muchos veteranos y será muy bueno si pasas un poco de tiempo agradeciéndoles. Volaremos por primera vez este lunes la bandera en nuestra nueva asta en el cementerio en honor a todos los veteranos enterrados allí.

El Evangelio y la primera lectura nos recuerdan que hay más de lo que preocuparse esta tierra y este mundo. Por esta razón, necesitamos encontrar cuál es la verdad última: Dios. Hay un psiquiatra que me gusta mucho, Viktor Frankl. Escribió toda su teoría de la psicoterapia cuando estaba en un campo de concentración durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Llegó a la conclusión de que, si una persona encuentra una RAZÓN para VIVIR, puede VIVIR casi de cualquier manera. Entonces, si has encontrado a Cristo, puedes vivir en paz en todas partes.

San Francisco de Sales ¡Ruega por nosotros!

Caros irmãos e irmãs

Tínhamos acabado de celebrar a solenidade de Todos os Santos e a Comemoração de Todas as Almas, na qual pedimos a todos que já estão no Céu para orar por nós e oramos por todos os batizados que nos precederam na morte, para que o Senhor os recebesse em Suas habitações eternas. Nesta semana, há um feriado federal que se mantém em sintonia com esse sentimento - o Dia dos Veteranos. Este feriado é diferente do Memorial Day, pois oramos por todos aqueles que serviram em qualquer uma das guerras que foram travadas em defesa da liberdade. Sou muito grato àqueles que serviram nas forças armadas na defesa de nossas liberdades. E acho que é uma ótima oportunidade de ter tempo para agradecer a um veterano. Nosso cemitério tem muitos veteranos e será muito bom se você passar um pouco de tempo agradecendo a eles. Voaremos pela primeira vez nesta segunda-feira a bandeira em nosso novo mastro no cemitério em homenagem a todos os veteranos enterrados lá.

O Evangelho e a primeira leitura nos lembram que há mais do que apenas esta terra e este mundo para se preocupar. Por esse motivo, precisamos encontrar qual é a verdade suprema - Deus. Há um psiquiatra que eu gosto muito, Viktor Frankl. Ele escreveu toda a sua teoria da psicoterapia quando estava em um campo de concentração durante a Segunda Guerra Mundial. Ele chegou à conclusão de que, se uma pessoa encontrou uma razão para viver, pode viver quase de qualquer maneira. Então, se você encontrou Cristo, pode viver em paz em qualquer lugar.

São Francisco de Sales ora por nós!

Fr. Francisco
