From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

What is prayer? It seems something so easy and simple; we just have to say some words and that is all. Well, Jesus today comes to us with one of the parables that teaches us how to pray. There are several parts to prayer and the one of this Sunday is insistence and perseverance. There are moments in our lives that we need to ask the Lord with insistence and perseverance in order to have what we need. In front of certain decisions in our life, we have no other options but to be at the feet of Jesus insistently asking for his help to discern what are we supposed to do or be. For example, my first months in the parish, now also but not as often, I found myself many times during the night praying with insistence to God to help me guide the parish. It was my first time taking care of a parish and being a pastor. I many times told the Lord that I have no clue how to do this job but that He who called me had to give me the Holy Spirit to know what to do to bring the parish closer to you. And God has been faithful. This aspect of prayer we sometimes forget because we want God to do it fast and in our schedule. So, we are invited to pray but ask for the important thing – the Holy Spirit.

As I said last week, Maria Camacho left us Thursday to take care of her family. Maria Elisa our need secretary will start Monday morning. I remind you that we are doing the special collection for our Building Fund to keep maintaining our buildings and do the work that is still necessary. The Pastoral Council has also requested that we help an orphanage in Haiti with a food drive – let us help as much as we can. And next week because of the pilgrimage to Washington DC and after consultation with the Pastoral Council and anonymous approval, we are cancelling Saturday masses for October 26 only. Let us continue to be with Lord.

Saint Francis de Sales Pray for Us!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

¿Qué es la oración? Parece algo tan fácil y sencillo; solo tenemos que decir algunas palabras y eso es todo. Bueno, Jesús hoy viene a nosotros con una de las parábolas que nos enseña cómo orar. Hay varias partes en la oración y la de este domingo es la insistencia y la perseverancia. Hay momentos en nuestras vidas que necesitamos pedirle al Señor con insistencia y perseverancia para tener lo que necesitamos. Frente a ciertas decisiones en nuestra vida, no tenemos más opciones que estar a los pies de Jesús pidiéndole insistentemente su ayuda para discernir qué se supone que debemos hacer o ser. Por ejemplo, mis primeros meses en la parroquia, ahora también pero no con tanta frecuencia, me encontraba muchas veces durante la noche rezando con insistencia en que Dios me ayudara a guiar la parroquia. Era la primera vez que cuidaba una parroquia y era pastor. Muchas veces le dije al Señor que no tengo idea de cómo hacer este trabajo, pero que El que me llamó tenía que darme el Espíritu Santo para saber qué hacer para acercar la parroquia a usted. Y Dios ha sido fiel. A veces olvidamos este aspecto de la oración porque queremos que Dios lo haga rápido y en nuestro horario. Entonces, estamos invitados a orar, pero pedimos lo importante: el Espíritu Santo.

Como dije la semana pasada, María Camacho nos dejó el jueves para cuidar a su familia. María Elisa nuestra secretaria necesitada comenzará el lunes por la mañana. Les recuerdo que estamos haciendo una colección especial para nuestro Fondo de Construcción para mantener nuestros edificios y hacer el trabajo que aún es necesario. El Consejo Pastoral también ha solicitado que ayudemos a un orfanato en Haití con una campaña de alimentos. Permítanos ayudarlo tanto como podamos. Y la próxima semana debido a la peregrinación a Washington DC y después de consultar con el Consejo Pastoral y la aprobación anónima, cancelaremos las misas del sábado solo para el 26 de octubre. Sigamos estando con el Señor.

San Francisco de Sales ¡Ruega por nosotros!

Caros irmãos e irmãs

O que é oração? Parece algo tão fácil e simples; nós apenas temos que dizer algumas palavras e isso é tudo. Bem, hoje Jesus vem até nós com uma das parábolas que nos ensinam a orar. Existem várias partes da oração e a deste domingo é insistência e perseverança. Há momentos em nossas vidas que precisamos pedir ao Senhor com insistência e perseverança para ter o que precisamos. Diante de certas decisões em nossa vida, não temos outras opções a não ser ficar aos pés de Jesus pedindo insistentemente sua ajuda para discernir o que devemos fazer ou ser. Por exemplo, meus primeiros meses na paróquia, agora também, mas não com tanta frequência, eu me vi muitas vezes durante a noite orando com insistência a Deus para me ajudar a guiar a paróquia. Foi minha primeira vez cuidando de uma paróquia e sendo pastor. Eu já disse muitas vezes ao Senhor que não tenho idéia de como fazer esse trabalho, mas que aquele que me chamou tinha que me dar o Espírito Santo para saber o que fazer para aproximar a paróquia de você. E Deus tem sido fiel. Às vezes, esquecemos esse aspecto da oração porque queremos que Deus faça isso rapidamente e em nossa programação. Então, somos convidados a orar, mas pedimos o importante - o Espírito Santo.

Como eu disse na semana passada, Maria Camacho nos deixou na quinta-feira para cuidar de sua família. Maria Elisa, nossa secretária de necessidade, começará segunda-feira de manhã. Lembro que estamos fazendo uma coleção especial para o nosso Fundo de Construção para manter a manutenção de nossos edifícios e fazer o trabalho que ainda é necessário. O Conselho Pastoral também solicitou que ajudássemos um orfanato no Haiti a dirigir alimentos - vamos ajudar o máximo que pudermos. E na próxima semana, devido à peregrinação a Washington DC e após consulta ao Conselho Pastoral e aprovação anônima, cancelamos as missas de sábado apenas para 26 de outubro. Vamos continuar com o Senhor.

São Francisco de Sales ora por nós!

Fr. Francisco
