

KIM R. WILSON, MSSW/LCSW, is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker. Kim earned her Bachelor's degree in Social Work from Western Kentucky University and participated in the PCWCP program. Kim then completed her Master's of Science in Social Work at the University of Louisville, Kent School of Social Work, in 2005. After going into private practice in early 2009, she obtained her LCSW licensure in March 2011. She has more than 20 years of experience in the helping profession.

Primary therapeutic approaches include Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, EMDR (certified), Solution-Focused Therapy, Dialectical Behavior Therapy (certified), and Narrative Therapy. She currently provides supervision to CSWs seeking their clinical licensure as an LCSW, as well as supervising both MSW and BSW interns.

Kim has extensive experience in assessment, diagnosis, providing therapy, treatment planning, collaborating with community partners, court testimony, co-parenting and crisis intervention. Services are provided to individuals, couples, families and groups. She is trained as a Forensic Interviewer and previously conducted forensic interviews at the Barren River Child Advocacy Center. Prior to private practice, Kim worked at DCBS investigating child abuse and neglect for 5 years, conducting more than 500 investigations and completing comprehensive familial assessments, preceded by an additional 5 years working for the State of Kentucky, including DCBS ongoing and permanency units, determining eligibility for Child Care Assistance Program, and as an instructor for a 1999 welfare-to-work job-readiness initiative.

Being a part of the community and advocacy are important to Kim. Advocacy activities include:
