Additional Comments

I really enjoyed working with Bryan this past semester. He did an excellent job making the material accessible and relevant to me as a psychiatrist who has a different practice model compared to a therapist. I felt that there were always pearls I could take with me to my practice setting. He covered basics of CBT and family systems with me which I found to be helpful. He challenged me to think differently about my cases and the main reasons why people were seeking therapy, for example dysfunctional spousal relationship rather than sibling conflict in one of my cases. He was up front, direct and easy to get along with. I think he will be an outstanding supervisor for therapist trainees in the future!
