VEGETARIAN

"He (Hitler) could not bear to eat meat, because it meant the death of a living creature. He refused to have so much as a rabbit or a trout sacrificed to provide his food. He would allow only eggs on his table; because egg-laying meant that the hen had been spared rather than killed."

'BIG GAME' MASS HUNTER

Responding to controversy over the massive number of African animals killed, Roosevelt said:

"I can be condemned only if the existence of the National Museum, the American Museum of Natural History, and all similar zoological institutions are to be condemned."
