"You learn to speak by speaking, to study by studying, to run by running, to work by working; and just so you learn to love God and man by loving. All those who think to learn in any other way deceive themselves."

Saint Francis de Sales

St. Francis de Sales Parish confesses our belief in Jesus Christ as Lord and proclaims the Kingdom of God in the Roman Catholic tradition by forming a community reflective of the diverse cultures of our area, empowered by God's spirit, and dedicated to the shared ministry of witnessing to the Good News in Word, in Sacrament, and in Action.

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES LODI, NJ.

From Fr. Francisco 's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

In the Gospel today we listen about the Wedding at Cana. It is very interesting the setting during which Jesus Christ performs his first sign. They are all invited to this wedding, Jesus and his apostles and his mother. It happens that they ran out of wine. This poses a question for all of us. Have you ran out of wine? We all start life, marriage, new job, new year, etc... full of good intentions and through them seeking joy. However, we find very fast that we are out of "wine", of desire, of will, of joy. One example is marriage; you prepared the wedding ceremony and reception. It was beautiful but soon start realizing that to love your spouse is not as simple as it seems. At that point many couples start thinking that love disappeared and want to give up — no more "wine". It is at this point that what the Virgin Mary said to Jesus is important: "Do whatever he tells you". A new wine needs to appear in order to make the marriage work. For this reason, it is fundamental that Jesus is in the middle of every marriage. A good way to do this is attending talks or catechesis on marriage. St. Joseph in East Rutherford will start February 1 at 8 PM in the convent a series of talks for engaged couples and married couples; they will run weekly on Fridays at the same time.

Also, we are having our Sweet Heart Tricky Tray on February 1 and I hope everyone can participate and attend. I will give a Protecting God's Children class on January 24 at 7 PM in Spanish for all volunteers as this is a mandatory requirement.

Saint Francis de Sales Pray for Us!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

En el Evangelio de hoy escuchamos sobre la Boda en Caná. Es muy interesante el escenario en el que Jesucristo realiza su primera señal. Todos están invitados a esta boda, Jesús y sus apóstoles y su madre. Sucede que se quedaron sin vino. Esto tiene una pregunta para todos nosotros. ¿Te has quedado sin vino? Todos comenzamos la vida, el matrimonio, el nuevo trabajo, el año nuevo, etc., llenos de buenas intenciones y, a través de ellos, buscando la alegría. Sin embargo, nos encontramos muy rápido que estamos no tenemos "vino", del deseo, de la voluntad, de la alegría. Un ejemplo es el matrimonio; Usted preparó la ceremonia de la boda y la recepción. Fue hermoso, pero pronto empiezo a darte cuenta de que amar a tu cónyuge no es tan simple como parece. En ese momento, muchas parejas comienzan a pensar que el amor desapareció y quieren rendirse, no más "vino". Es en este punto que lo que la Virgen María le dijo a Jesús es importante: "Haz lo que te diga". Es necesario que aparezca un nuevo vino para que el matrimonio funcione. Por esta razón, es fundamental que Jesús esté en el medio de cada matrimonio. Una buena manera de hacerlo es asistir a charlas o catequesis sobre el matrimonio. St. Joseph en East Rutherford comenzará el 1 de febrero a las 8 PM en el convento una serie de charlas para parejas comprometidas y casadas; correrán semanalmente los viernes al mismo tiempo.

Además, tendremos nuestro Sweet Heart Tricky Tray el 1 de febrero y espero que todos puedan participar y asistir. Daré una clase para Proteger a los Niños de Dios el 24 de enero a las 7 PM en español para todos los voluntarios, ya que este es un requisito obligatorio.

San Francisco de Sales ¡Ruega por nosotros!

Queridos irmãos e irmãs,

No Evangelho hoje ouvimos sobre o casamento em Caná. É muito interessante o cenário durante o qual Jesus Cristo realiza seu primeiro sinal. Eles são todos convidados para este casamento, Jesus e seus apóstolos e sua mãe. Acontece que eles ficaram sem vinho. Isso tem uma pergunta para todos nós. Você já ficou sem vinho? Todos começamos vida, casamento, novo emprego, ano novo, etc... cheios de boas intenções e através deles buscando alegria. No entanto, achamos muito rápido que estamos fora do "vinho", do desejo, da vontade, da alegria. Um exemplo é o casamento; você preparou a cerimônia e a recepção do casamento. Foi lindo, mas logo começa a perceber que amar o seu cônjuge não é tão simples quanto parece. Nesse ponto muitos casais começam a pensar que o amor desapareceu e quer desistir - não mais "vinho". É neste ponto que o que a Virgem Maria disse a Jesus é importante: "Faça o que ele lhe disser". Um novo vinho precisa aparecer para que o casamento funcione. Por essa razão, é fundamental que Jesus esteja no meio de todo casamento. Uma boa maneira de fazer isso é participar de palestras ou catequeses sobre o casamento. St. Joseph em East Rutherford começará no dia 1 de fevereiro às 20 horas no convento uma série de palestras para casais de noivos e casais casados; eles serão exibidos semanalmente às sextas-feiras ao mesmo tempo.

Além disso, estamos tendo nossa Sweet Heart Tricky Tray em 1 de fevereiro e espero que todos possam participar e participar. Eu darei uma aula de Protecting God's Children no dia 24 de janeiro às 19h em espanhol para todos os voluntários, já que este é um requisito obrigatório.

São Francisco de Sales ora por nós!

Fr. Francisco

Bishop's Weekly Bible Reflection on Stewardship

"To each individual the manifestation of the spirit is given for some benefit." (1 Corinthians 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth. Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you, feel His love, peace and joy!

If you are interested in celebrating your anniversary at the Sacred Basilica please contact the rectory for registration 973-779-4330.

World Day for Consecrated Life

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer to celebrate women and men in consecrated life. Since then the universal Church celebrates World Day for Consecrated Life on February 2nd. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples.

The consecrated life is one way that men and women live out their baptismal commitment as followers of Jesus. Religious sisters, nuns, brothers, religious priests, and monks consecrate their lives through their profession of the evangelical vows and live as part of a community. Single lay people may choose to be consecrated virgins and make private vows to the local bishop. Secular institutes are another form of living the consecrated life. We thank God for their saying "yes" to their vocation.

Please join with our Cardinal, Joseph W. Tobin CSSR and the Church of Newark at an 11:00AM Mass in the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart on Saturday, February 2, 2019 to celebrate those in consecrated life and in particular those Sisters, Brothers and Priests who are celebrating their anniversaries this year. This invitation is extended in a special way to the members of every parish as a means of supporting and thanking the consecrated men and women of our Archdiocese for their selfless gift of service to our local Church. We hope you can be us.
