About the Book:

Eight true stories - She had two abortions. He did five years for manslaughter. She was raped in fifth grade. His mother was murdered in front of him. What they all have in common is God's amazing grace that transformed their lives. Dr. Chris Brown shares real life stories that will challenge, inspire, and encourage believers and skeptics alike.

Reviews:

"Readers will identify with what Jesus calls 'the least of these' and cheer with the power of God's redeeming love." -Renee Nickell, Bestselling Author of Always My Hero: The Road to Hope & Healing Following My Brother's Death in Afghanistan

"You will find yourself thanking God out loud for His loving kindness and mercy." -Ivan Tait, Founder and CEO of What Matters Ministries and Missions

"Every story is filled with such honesty of how our sins draw us away from God but how we are never drawn out of reach of His forgiveness." -Cathryn Buse, Christian apologist and founder of Defend the Faith Ministry

"If you want to know what God's grace and mercy looks like, read Testimonies of Grace." -Brandi Atchison, Owner of Shades of Pemberley Bookstore and Book Reviewer for Land + Lake Magazine

About the Author:

Son of a criminal sentenced to death, Dr. Chris Brown writes from his extensive experience of witnessing God's grace in the most unlikely circumstances. Chris has shared his message of hope both at home and abroad, with the free and the incarcerated, showing all that they are not too far gone, too lost, or too broken to be accepted and lovingly restored by God. Chris' unique experience and love for God have allowed him to share remarkable true stories of God's grace in action.
