VOLUME 57 JUNE 2014

One month to SALA!!!

Just completing the small wearable art pieces to compliment the 3 photographed artworks. In conjunction with the wearable art section of our exhibition David Leane has done some amazing photos on 3D canvas. He projected photographs of art nudes with dark or very busy backgrounds onto the naked torsos of two women that were painted with white face. I helped with the torso painting. The two women stood really still and the projection was brought into focus so their bodies distorted the pictures form as it wraps around the breasts and curves. The resulting images looks amazing. We will have postcards of all the artworks for sale as well as the large prints and wearable art.

Image-In-Tech-styles opening night is friday august 1st from 6pm - 10pm rsvp to sam on 0448358220 all welcome but please note that aspects of this exhibition are not suitable for people under 18 years of age.
49a Bridge St Murray Bridge. There will be at least one other opening that night which is in walking distance.

Don't forget my very talented friend Joy Harvey is having her very first exhibition opening on July 4th at Gallery M. See exhibitions below for all the details.

Once SALA is over then I will start working on my wearable art piece for the Festival of Quilts run by the Quilters guild of SA at the Quilt and Craft fair in November. The theme is Pearl and I have shopped till I dropped at lots of fabric stores to get the perfect stuff now I just have to pull it all together.
See you at the Opening! Sam
