

Fee For Service

Do Conquest Dental a Fee for Service Dentists Accept Dental Insurance?

Conquest Dental Group Fee for service accepts most PPO dental insurance benefits and uninsured patients.

Fee for service dentistry enables you to choose the dentist you want for your treatment, rather than being restricted.

Paying for Fee for Service Treatment

If you do have PPO dental insurance and are considering Conquest Dental a fee for service dentists, you can expect to pay the honored amount according to your PPO plan fee schedule. This amount will be reimbursed to the patient. You will receive a copy of the treatment plan & receipt or pre-treatment estimate to submit to your insurance company for reimbursement or the amount they will pay on an upcoming procedure. We can also assist in submitting info on behalf of the patient if needed.

No Insurance

If you do not have insurance, rest assured our fees are consistent within the same geographical locations.

In Conquest Dental fee for service, you pay the entire fee for the dental procedure up front. Dental financing & payment plan options are available to help you manage your out-of-pocket expenses.
