For one hundred and twenty years, God pleaded with the people in Noah's day to repent and believe him. Their only salvation was in a wooden boat called the Ark.

God said "Come," but they would not. Instead, they mocked and scoffed at Noah and his family.

Just before the flood, "...they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the Ark, and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away" (Matthew 24:37-39). There was nothing wrong with the things they were doing, but they busied themselves with these things, UNTIL the flood came!

Today, since the invisible church was established on the day of Pentecost, God has been "calling out" a people for His name. The Gospel has been preached in every nation, all over the world.

One day soon, the Holy Spirit will escort all believers in the air to meet Jesus, the Savior of the world. Just as Noah gathered the animals and his family into the ark, God is gathering ALL who will believe on the name of His Son Jesus.

"Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, that ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first.....(CNN reported it)..."

America becoming less Christian, survey finds

March 6, 2009

- Story Highlights
- New survey finds Americans less likely to identify themselves as Christian
- Three of four call themselves Christian, down from 86 percent in 1990
- Survey finds an increase in number of people expressing no religious affiliation
- Percentage of Muslims has doubled, but still small: From 0.3 to 0.6 percent

(CNN) -- America is a less Christian nation than it was 20 years ago, and Christianity is not losing out to other religions, but primarily to a rejection of religion altogether, a survey published and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition: who opposeth and exalteth himself above ALL that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God..." (2 Thess. 2:1-12).

Don't wait until you find yourself in the kingdom of antichrist, talk to God and tell Him you are sorry... and ask Him to save you right now. He will write your name in the Lamb's Book of Life.
