Murray Bridge has a Farmers Market every Saturday morning at the warf precinct....aparantly.... cause I cant cook I dont see the point of going to these events as they make me feel inadquate. Anyway... they are introducing an Artisian Market once a month. I have tentitavly booked a site for December 8th and will have my arts and crafts for sale. 8am - 12noon www.murraybridgefarmersmarket.com.au

Had a great time at the "Girls Night In" event at Murray Bridge Regional Gallery. There was a store there called Sanctuary on Seventh. They stock fair trade coffe and a wide variety of fair trade gifts, textiles and homewares. They had beautiful delicate laquered rolled paper bead necklace, knotted rugs, felted items, paper mobiles and more. Find them at 31 Seventh St Murray Bridge. 0885326519. Open M-F 9-5 and Sat 9-4.

The Hand Spinners & Weavers Guild of SA has a Summer Fibre School from Jan 13th - 24 with 13 workshops on a variety of skills including felting, crochet, weaving, kumihimo braiding, spinning nuno felting, rag rugs and natural dyeing. go to Website: <https://sites.google.com/site/handspinweavesa/> for all the info or contact 83524843 for details.

D.S.Horne Leather

I visited the leather store after hearing about it through the Aus Sewing Guild and was overwhelmed by the range of tools, leathers, hardware and more. Bought some nice barramundi skins for some future project. The shop is just off the road with very low key frontage. I drove past twice before picked the entrance! open 8-5 M-F & 9-12 Sat.
