

Mr. Issa Jones
LL.B(Hons), LPC(Com)
Senior Associate, Attorney-at-Law
TobagoLawyers@Gmail.com, +868-469-9286

Mr. Issa Jones has been working within the field of law in the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago since the year 2009 both prior and after attaining his law degree. He worked and gained extensive experience from both the state and one of the more prestigious firms, before moving on to attain his Post Graduate Diploma in Law with Commendations from the Staffordshire Law School.

Mr. Jones has a jovial character but is quite stern and precise when it comes to law. He has worked along side the Senior Partner of Hove & Associates in several High Court and Court of Appeal matters gaining significant experience and successes along the way. He specializes in complex Civil Litigation matters, including Personal Injury, Wrongful Arrest, Unlawful Detention, Fraud, Defamation and Property disputes.

Mr. Jones has and continues to have the advantage of working alongside Senior Counsel in several matters pursuing arguments that seeks to expand the Jurisprudence of our nation's Civil Courts.

He understands the financial difficulties that personal injury clients may face and often pursues Justice on a pro-bono basis to avoid the high cost associated with litigation for under privileged persons.

Mr. Jones is a devoted Christian, an avid cook, loves children and enjoys giving back by volunteering through different activities such as pro-bono legal clinics, football and family days within his community.
