

Help Today's Parents

In today's fast-paced and technologically advanced society, families are moving more apart from each other, physically separated during the week and still not sufficiently connected on Sabbath.

Cell phones, tablets, and computers keep us tied to devices and not to people, face-to-face. Jesus came to Adam and Eve in the cool of the day and enjoyed face-to-face communion with His children.

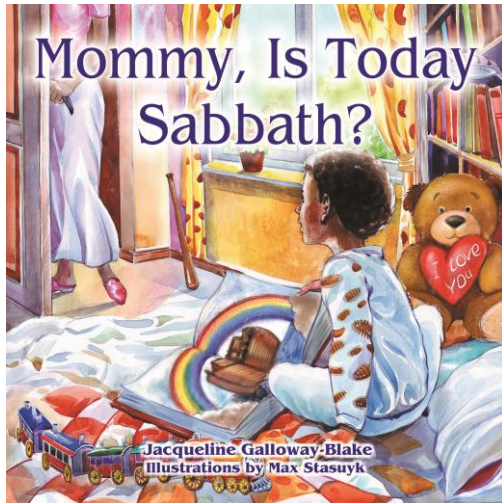

Sabbath is a day to re-connect – with God, with spouses, with parents, with children.

This workshop helps parents to value this special time to build memories with their children, to instill spiritual values and to discover the joy and delight of the Bible Sabbath.

Parents need help!

This workshop answers their needs with information and inspiration.

More Delightful Sabbaths

As an experienced educator, church and public school teacher, author, Parents of Young Children (PYC) online support group leader, and national workshop presenter, Jacqueline Galloway-Blake brings a wealth of knowledge to this workshop.

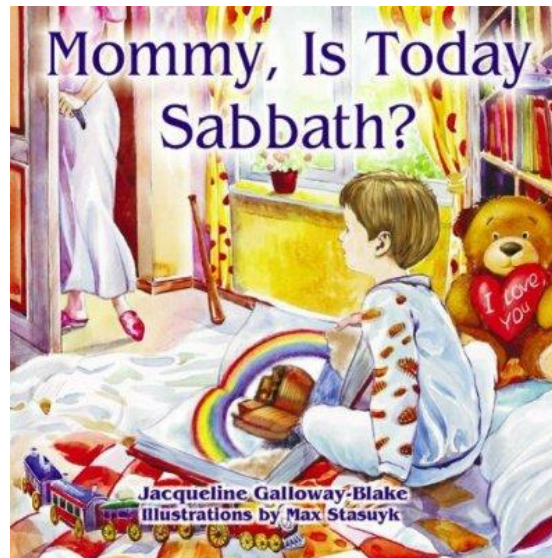

This workshop is three-fold:

- Seminar – “How to Make Sabbath Delightful for Children”
- Make & Take – Make something special for your child
- Book-signing – personalize your book

The seminar includes a power-point presentation explaining the stages of child development from birth to age five coupled with age-appropriate activities.

Modelling the importance of physical involvement, parents will create a unique item to take home to remind them of the importance of hands-on activities.

Finally, copies of the children’s picture book, “Mommy, Is Today Sabbath?” will be available for personalization.

“Mommy, Is Today Sabbath?”

This unique children’s picture book has been purchased through Adventist Book Centers around the world, including Australia, Jamaica, California, New York and Michigan.

It is available in four multicultural editions: Asian, African-American, Caucasian and Hispanic

3 ABN - Kid’s Time

It was highlighted on the children’s television show – “Kid’s Time with Brenda Walsh.
