General Pet Rules:

- 1. Damage Deposit: A damage deposit of one hundred dollars ($100) is required upon move-in. When the resident moves out or if the pets are no longer in room, an inspection will be made of the room by facility staff to determine if any repairs and/or additional heavy cleaning needs to be done in relation to the pet. If repairs and/or cleaning are determined necessary, the damage deposit will be applied toward them. If the repairs and/or cleaning are in excess of the damage deposit, the resident agrees to pay the additional amount. If there are no additional repairs and /or cleaning or the damage deposit is not used in full. The remaining amount will be refunded to the resident.
- 2. Registration: All pets Living or visiting must register their pets with the facility by completing the Pet Registration form and providing a certificate signed by a licensed veterinarian stating that the pet has received all necessary immunizations and has no communicable disease. Proof of immunization will be required annually.
- 3. Pet Care: Residents are responsible for all pet care. Pets must be quiet, even-tempered, housebroken, and not pose a threat to, or intimidate anyone. Residents must remove and properly dispose of all animal waste. Cats and Dogs must be restrained and under control when of a responsible adult while outside of owner's room. No pets allowed in the communal area of the facility when food is present. It is the sole responsibility of the pet owner to make arrangements for their pets while out of the facility (for example hospital stays.)
- 4. Pet Removal: A resident whose pets disturb others, poses a danger/ risk to others, and/or is considered to be an annoyance to others may be requested to make other housing arrangements for their pet. In addition, a pet that consistently damages facility property may not be allowed to remain at the facility. Any pet abandoned or whose health is jeopardized by neglect, mistreatment or resident's inability to care for the animal shall be reported to the proper authorities. The facility is not responsible for any pet removed under the above circumstances.
- 5. Pet Identification: All pets must have identification with the name and phone number of the responsible resident. All pets must wear a "proof of rabies vaccination" tag.
- 6. Boarding of Pets: The facility may facilitate care of a pet if a resident is away for less than 3 days by providing a list of pet caretakers to resident. A pet service fee of $10 per day will be charged to the resident to pay pet caretaker. After that time, the facility may arrange for the pet to be boarded in a kennel until the owner's return, and at the owner's expense. In both cases, this service is at the discretion of the facility and staff.
- 7. Death of a Pet: It will be the owner's sole responsibility to plan for the disposal of a pet in the event of death. Also, the owner will designate a person to be responsible to come for the pet in the event of owner's death.

Mount Vernon Pet agreement

All pet owners wishing to live in this facility and those currently living here will abide by the following rules and regulations regarding pet ownership. A pet is defined as a small dog or cat (see specific guidelines below) that is traditionally kept in the home for companionship.
