Pastoral Letter

From next Sunday until reopening the church (we do not know the specific date yet), we will start to have “Drive-In Worship” (we keep offering online worship as well). It will be an opportunity to come to church (sorry but not in the sanctuary and narthex) and to meet our church members (sorry again but you have to stay in your vehicle). For the online worship, we just have a few restrictions, but we have many restrictions that we SHOULD observe for our mutual health and safety. Please make yourself familiar with the following restrictions that VA Conference provided:

1. The church building will be locked and not accessible for members (no restrooms open).
2. No one should leave their vehicles for any reason while at the Drive-In Worship.
3. Everyone, including volunteers, staff, and clergy must follow physical distancing (6 feet).
4. No playground will be open.
5. No bulletins will be given out.
6. Park in every other spot. (There must be a spot open on the left and right of your vehicle)
7. Other than dropping offering into a receptacle provided by a volunteer standing 6 feet from the vehicle (for instance, with a bucket on a broomstick), there will be not be any exchange of anything.
