Client Bill of Rights

Consumers of Marriage and Family Therapy services offered by Marriage and Family Therapists licensed by the state of Minnesota have the right:

1. To expect that a therapist has met the minimal qualifications of training and experience required by state law;
2. To examine public records maintained by the Board of Marriage and Family Therapy which contain the credentials of a therapist;
3. To obtain a copy of the code of ethics from the Board of Marriage and Family Therapy, 2829 University Avenue SE, Suite 330, Minneapolis, MN 55414-3222;
4. To report complaints to the Board of Marriage and Family Therapy by calling (612) 617-2220;
5. To be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;
6. To privacy as defined by rule and law;
7. To be free from being the subject of discrimination on the basis of race, religion, gender, or other unlawful category while receiving services;
8. To have access to their records as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 144.335, 144.292 subdivision 2; and
9. To be free from exploitation for the benefit or advantage of the therapist.
10. To refuse treatment at any time.
