PROPERTY DISPUTES

We recognize that property disputes are becoming more and more common in The Republic of Trinidad and Tobago. Innocent persons are being defrauded of their properties and/or monies in sale agreements for properties as well as families are divided in property disputes. Property disputes can become lengthy and difficult to resolve if not handle carefully and skilfully. Our property lawyers are seen as experts in this field and have experience in both the High Court and Court of Appeal.

We work vigorously to ensure that our client's rights to their property are well protected and affirmed. Where amicable negotiations fail, our attorneys do not hesitate to litigate to the highest courts to ensure our client's properties and homes are not lost. We have good working relationships with professional land surveyors and accredited valutors to ensure that you receive expert services and value for your prized assets.

Our Property Dispute services include:

- Civil Litigation to pursue or defend a property disputes
- Notice to troublesome tenants
- Injunctive relief to prevent your removal from property
- Injunctive Relief to prevent Trespassers on your property
