

WHY WE SHOULD TRAVEL WITH OUR KIDS

I don't know about you, but I love to travel with my kid. Don't get me wrong, I also enjoy traveling without them, but giving them the gift of travel helps them become better people.

Here are my Top Five Reason's I like to travel with my kids:

- It builds confidence & independence
- Teaches them patience
- To unplug & truly connect
- To make them citizens of the world
- Family travel grows stronger families

PACKING TIPS

Over the years I have tried my best to learn to pack lightly. I want to say I am getting better at it, but the honest truth is, I bring even more stuff because I have learned the art of packing.

My number one tip is to roll like items together when packing.

For example, I can pack 4 or 5 t-shirts because I can roll them to look like a log so they take up way less space. Same with shorts and sundresses. And when we get to our destination, my clothes are not half as wrinkled as they used to be.

WHEN IS THE BEST TIME TO BOOK AN ALL INCLUSIVE VACATION

I encourage you to try this fantastic, space saving trick.

I hate to break the news to you, but the days of cheap last minute all inclusive vacations have pasted us.

The cheapest time to book airfare is when it first becomes available (approx 320 days before the departure date) anything that has flights involved are affected once the airlines raise the prices.

That is not saying that you still can't find a good deal. They are out there all the time.

How ever in generally the best time to buy an all inclusive vacation is between 3-9 months before travel.

Depending on how far out you book, payment plans can be arranged.

Where are you going to go next?

TRAVEL INSURANCE

Traveling is not a cheap hobby to have. And your vacation is valuable on many different levels.

Don't you think that an investment this large deserves some protection, should anything arise?

What if you get injured while you are away and need medical treatment? What if you needed to be evacuated?

What if you are traveling with your family? Don't they deserve protection? Contact your travel agent to find the right travel insurance package to meet your needs.
