Last Week's Run Report

Run 691 – Location Buckland Hill Mosman Park

Hare: Rusty Cook: Cookie

Last week saw another good turnout with about thirty hashers - mostly in military attire arriving at a deserted parking area in Mosman Park to pay their respects (Hash Style) to those who served our country in war.

RUSTY'S promise of a good trail did not disappoint, and the pack were sent on their way. It was a very entertaining trail marked with chalk and dunny paper winding it's way through the streets, parks and tracks of Buckland Hill eventually leading to a drink stop and a photo opportunity on a big weapon. The collective group posed for several photos and returned to the On-Home.

The circle was called by our GM SIR FUMBLES and (younger) SKIPPY was asked to review and rate the runners trail – he duly complied with a rating of 6.9.

WHOREDA rated the walker's trail a little lower at 5.9.

Long-time-no-sees TORVILLE, (younger) SKIPPY and RAMBLIN' ROSE were acknowledged.

Our RA Captain Bob didn't stand on ceremony and immediately hauled SCREWDRIVER into the circle for being rather late when in fact if it weren't for him the RA would be still circling the area looking for the run location. GPS was charged for his sloppy handling of the splash and DIRTY DEEDS was brought into the circle – not for a charge but just so everyone could get a look at her costume - as if we hadn't seen and heard enough of her already!

WISE CRACK levelled a charge at SLUSHBOX for his late arrival and getting lost apparently.

SHAFT SNIFFER wanted to charge DIRTY DEEDS over her offer to polish his helmet. He obviously fell for that one.

X-RAY charged TAGG for running over his attaché of important documents – luckily the attaché wasn't handcuffed to his wrist at the time.

Captain Bob stepped in once more to charge RAMBLIN' ROSE, STEAMER, HUMPER and SLUSHBOX for not dressing in a military fashion.

(younger) SKIPPY played The Last Post on his bugle and SIR FUMBLES recited the Ode.

RAMBLIN' ROSE had a 'Happy Birthday' song and presentation of the birthday hat adorned with flaccid candles.

AH-SUP broke from tradition and told a true story, for real.. He passed around a family photo of his father while he re-told how his father and his father's best mate Boy-o made the ultimate sacrifice in Crete fighting off advancing enemy paratroopers so that many of their colleagues could evacuate.

TURN YOUR BACK told a story about the disastrous first drink he shared with his son down at the pub – he got so drunk he could hardly push the pram home!

WHITE POINTER chipped in with his own true story involving his grandfather.

The nautical shorts were passed on to SLUSHBOX after his dummy spit or was it his lack of hash attire? Either way - the shorts somehow ended up in my car so I'm not sure who owns them now.

STEAMER led us into our club song and we tried to remember the words.
