

"John has the wonderful talent to engage both kids and adults alike. His interactive approach to storytelling lets all of us become part of the fun!"
 --C.J Hirschfield, Executive Director, Children's Fairyland

"Your storytelling performance held the attention of everyone, from babies and toddlers to preschoolers and parents. The choice of stories was excellent, involving participation from the audience, humor, magic, and fun! The show was very well paced and very polished. Your training as an actor is clearly evident..."
 -- Penny Peck, San Leandro Public Library

"Your manner with the children was delightful! You were friendly and openly expressed your enjoyment in sharing time with them. Your stories were very age-appropriate; I appreciate the manner in which you adjust for the ages of your audience. Your technique for engaging children in participation was very successful. Your ability to manage group behavior was very skilled. We're eager to see you again soon!"
 --Reading Specialist, Marilyn Avenue Elementary, Livermore

"...your presentation was exactly as we had hoped. I enjoyed you and so did the kids. You did a nice job of addressing all of the issues we were learning about, either by way of explanation or, more importantly by way of your example and live performance. ..we are unanimous in feeling that the afternoon was a huge success"
 --J.G., Homeschool Association Organizer

"A sincere mahalo from the Waikiki Aquarium. Thank you so much. It was delightful to see the expressions and interaction of the keiki and adults... I hope we are able to work together in the very near future." -- Waikiki Aquarium

"Thank you again for coming to help us celebrate our birthday. The guests seemed to really enjoy the storytelling. You kept them captivated."
 -- Hawaii Children's Discovery Center

"John Weaver is always fantastic, engaging and fun." --Storytime parent

"I was so pleased with how well it went! The kids & parents and staff all enjoyed our time with you very much. I got your name from a Palo Alto librarian, and I will be sure to thank her for her great recommendation. We hope to have you visit here again!" --Lucile Packard Children's Hospital, Palo Alto, CA

"...the kids really enjoyed hearing your stories; my class did a writing activity afterward to debrief and they had quite a bit to say." --Discovery Charter School, San Jose

"We really enjoyed your stories! We got a lot of positive feedback from the campers. I particularly liked the way you pulled the girls back into the stories. I will definitely recommend you for future GS events." --Girl Scouts of Coyote Hills

"Thank you! The kids had so much fun and the teachers were still talking about how much fun it was during lunch hour. Everyone enjoyed themselves. It was such a breath of fresh air in storytelling. My (students) are a great judge of character and they clearly felt very comfortable with you. I have been asked numerous times when you are coming back. We will definitely do this again in the very near future." --Heads Up Early Learning Institute, Palo Alto
