PROVEN LEADERSHIP YOU CAN COUNT ON!

Linda Kabot has nearly 14 years of experience at the executive and legislative level of local government. She served as Southampton Town Supervisor from 2008 through 2009 and Councilwoman from 2002 through 2007. Prior to holding elective office, Linda Kabot worked in Southampton Town Hall for six years as Executive Assistant to a previous Town Supervisor.

With a solid background in Town government administration, public policy formation, municipal finance, and constituent services, Linda Kabot has a substantial working knowledge about land use law, zoning and Town budgetary matters. She is conversant on the issues that are important to community members throughout the East End. She has demonstrated principled leadership as an elected official and delivered on the campaign platform promises made in prior elections. As a Southampton Town elected official, Linda Kabot has held the line on property taxes, cut government spending, streamlined regulatory processes, supported local businesses, and ensured proactive code enforcement to safeguard neighborhoods and property values. Throughout her public service, Linda Kabot was highly regarded as a dedicated Town Official who demonstrates a tireless commitment to the betterment of the community and being responsive to the needs of Town residents and taxpayers.

As a government leader, Linda Kabot earned a reputation for being honest, fair, meticulous, hard-working, results-oriented, reform-minded and independent.

Born and raised in the Westhampton area, Linda Kabot knows every corner of Southampton Town and has great familiarity with all the hamlets and villages from Moriches through Montauk as well as on the North Fork. She graduated with honors from Westhampton Beach schools and Hobart and William Smith College. She lives with her husband Lance in Quogue with their three sons -- Jeff (28), Zack (26), and Connor (18). Her husband Lance is a retired industrial arts/technology teacher who worked in the Westhampton Beach School District.

For the 2019 General Election, Linda Kabot is running on the Republican, Conservative and Libertarian lines for Suffolk County Legislator, Legislative District #2, to be a more effective voice for the South Fork. She is proud to offer her knowledge, experience, courage and strength of character to the voters and to support the candidacy of County Executive candidate John Kennedy (R, C, I) who is running to restore fiscal sanity to Suffolk County. Her 2019 campaign platform focuses on fiscal responsibility, more efficient and responsive government, bolstering the local economy, protecting the environment, and having integrity in our elected officials.

Linda Kabot hopes to earn your vote of confidence for Suffolk County Legislator on Election Day Nov. 5 to bring common sense, know-how and more effective leadership for the South Fork of Long Island. #SaveSuffolk
