

AAFA PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Play by the rules – the rules of AAFA and the laws of the game.
2. Attend training sessions and matches at times advised by the Club. If unable, for a valid reason to do so, players will inform the Club as soon, as is practical.
3. Act respectfully toward the officials and players of their own and opposing Clubs.
4. Respect and follow the directions of coaching staff, match and club officials.
5. Treat all players with respect, as you would want them to treat you.
6. Act respectfully towards match officials at all times. Abusive language is unacceptable.
7. Avoid individual or collective behaviour, which may reasonably be held by spectators to be offensive.
8. Avoid all acts likely to incite spectators to violence or disorder.
9. Make no detrimental statements in public (radio, television, print or electronic media) in respect to the performance of any match officials, players, or any policy decisions of the AAFA or the ADFAR.
10. Abide by the By-Laws, (Rules & Regulations) and the Competition Rules of the ADFAR.
11. Respect the facilities and equipment of their own and opposing Clubs.
12. Do not use remarks based on race, religion, gender or ability as many such comments are politically incorrect and it is your coach, team-mates, Club and family that are let down with such remarks.
13. Do not use information technology to make or post inappropriate comments against players, clubs, club officials, match officials or the AAFA or ADFAR which is discriminatory or offensive. Information technology includes, but is not limited to, email, instant messaging, text messages, phone messages, digital images, website postings (including social media such as Facebook, Twitter and blogs).
