

HOVE & ASSOCIATES :- TRINIDAD LAWYERS

The Peoples Law Firm

Date of Release: 2nd October 2011

Press Release:

Hove & Associates attends and participates in panel discussion on “Creating a Regional Jurisprudence”.

Trinidad lawyers, Hove & Associates, took time from their very busy schedule to attend and be a part of the panel discussion on “Creating a Regional Jurisprudence”, which took place at the Hall of Justice, Knox Street, Port of Spain, Trinidad on the 30th September 2011.

The discussion was hosted by the Judicial Education Institute as part of its programme to launch its Inaugural Distinguished Jurist Lecture.

The panel was made up of the following distinguished individuals:

- Dr. Leighton Jackson, Senior Lecturer, Norman Manley, Law Faculty Jamaica.
- Sir Shridath Ramphal, QC, OC, former Secretary General of the Commonwealth
- The Right Hon Sir Dennis Byron, President of the Caribbean Court of Justice
- The Honourable Chief Justice of Trinidad & Tobago, Mr. Justice Ivor Archie
- Ms. Dana Seethal S.C., President of the Law Association of Trinidad & Tobago

Farai Hove Masaisai, Senior Partner at Hove & Associates , said

“We as lawyers in Trinidad and Tobago must stand united in one voice to convince the powers that be of the values of having our legal matters decided by Caribbean Jurists, whom are more in tuned with the pulse and culture of Caribbean Society as opposed to the prevailing situation of having British Law Lords and Baronesses deciding our legal destinies”.
