

COMPLEMENTARY THERAPIES:

Where Are We Today With Practice & Research?

Friday, April 4th, 2014 5:30-9:00 pm

Location: Hospice of Windsor-Essex County
6038 Empress Street

An Experiential Experience!
Please come in comfortable clothing!

Come & join us for:

- A mini-treatment of a type of complementary therapy
- Meet some local businesses or groups that provide various complementary therapies
- Information on various CT Associations and Workshops
- A meal with a talk by Kim M Watson where she will inform us further on the current practice and research that surrounds complementary therapies today and how this impacts nurses in their care of those they serve

RNAO Members & Students: $5

Non-Members: $10

Please bring your spare change or paper money for an added donation to the Hospice of Windsor-Essex who have graciously donated their space (if over $20 you will get a tax receipt; forms available at the door)

RSVP before Monday March 31, 2014 to windsorressexrnao@gmail.com

Speaker: Kim M Watson, RN, DPHN, MScN, Holistic Practitioner is the President of the RNAO-CTNIG (Complementary Therapies Nurses' Interest Group), & the Ontario Representative for the CHNA (Canadian Holistic Nurses Association). She practices various biofield therapies/energy work: Reiki Master, Healing Touch, and Therapeutic Touch.

Hosted by the:

RNAO

Registered Nurses' Association of Ontario
L'Association des infirmières et infirmiers
autorisés de l'Ontario

WINDSOR-ESSEX CHAPTER