President's Message

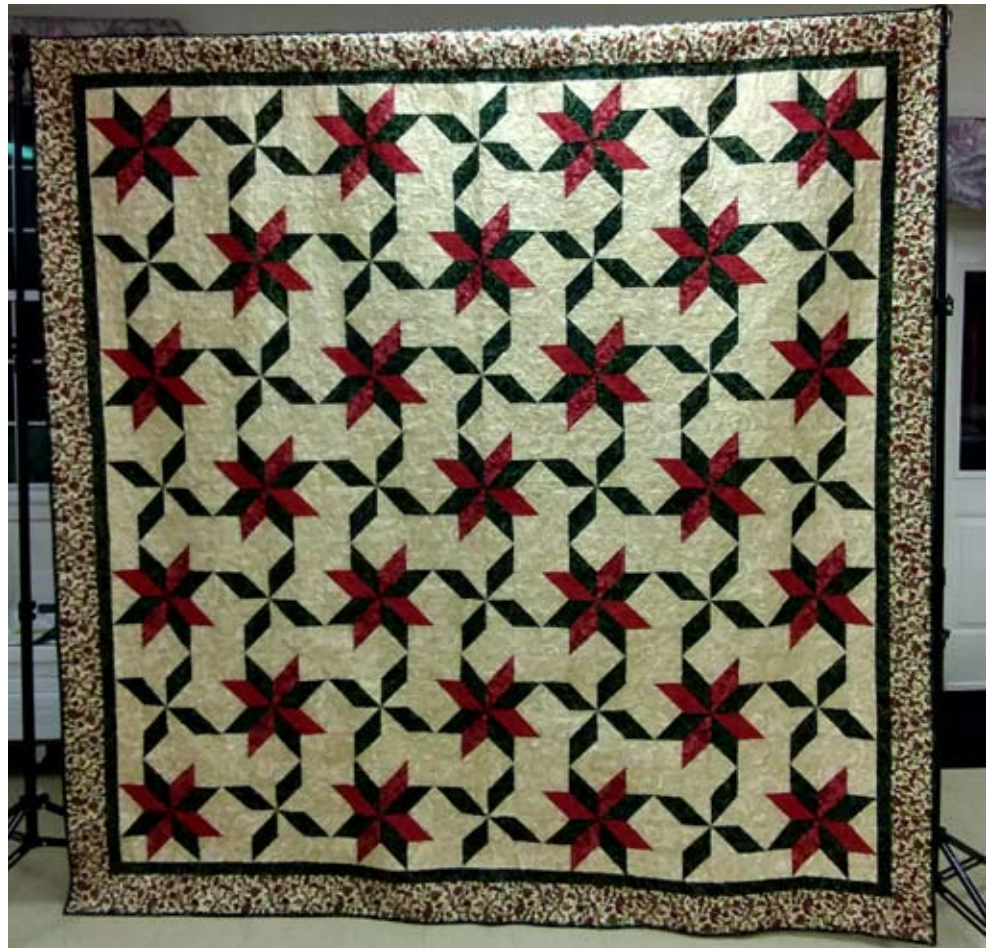

Mancuso's Mid Atlantic Quilt Show is a week later this year and they are celebrating 30 years in Hampton Roads. We as quilters look forward to this event every year. Mid Atlantic is a great place to showcase PPQG and recruit new members. Thank you to the members that signed up to do White Glove and sell tickets for our beautiful raffle quilt at the show. Whether you are there taking classes, shopping or looking for inspiration for your next quilt, come by our Raffle Quilt table to buy tickets. The PPQG 2018 Challenge, "Have Passport will Travel", will be one of the Guild displays. We have several members with quilts entered in the show this year, too.

On a separate note, please consider taking one of the open positions on the Board for the next term which begins in June. Many of our officers have reached the end of the time they can serve in their positions. PPQG is an organization run by volunteers. I have enjoyed my five years on the Board but I need to step away and give others the opportunity to serve. I hope to see many of you at the Quilt Show, upcoming workshops, and at our March Chapter meetings.

Gala Damato
PPQG President

2019 Raffle Quilt

Thank you to Sandy Barnes and her bee for making this beautiful quilt for the Guild to raffle this year. Sandy has named it "Friendly Persuasion". Thank you to Terry Hanson for doing the beautiful long arm quilting. Tickets are $2 each or 6 tickets for $10. The drawing will be November 12 at the Night Chapter meeting. Tickets will be sold all four days at Mid Atlantic. Then tickets will be sold at our Guild meetings March through November. If you would like to help sell the Raffle Tickets at the meetings, contact Gala Damato at gala.damato@gmail.com or 862-6823.

Sandy Barnes, Donna D'Amelio, Natalie Hutchinson, Susan Kopczyk, Susan Gatewood, and Shelley Flint are members of the bee.

Night Chapter New Location

We are still working on the best room set up in our new location. I am thankful to Riverside for allowing us to meet at the Riverside Warwick Conference Center. The address is 12420 Warwick Blvd, Building 6 Newport News 23606. It is across the street from Hidenwood Shopping Center. The Conference Center is on the first floor of the three story building in the back. A picture of Building 6 is provided. This information and a map is provided on the web site. There is plenty of parking and it is well lit at night. We do have to set up the room and return the room to the way it was arranged. Thank you to all those that have been helping with this task.

Honor Quilt Workshop

I will be holding a workshop on Thursday, March 21 at Courthouse Way Community Center, 14302 Old Courthouse Way, Newport News, Va. in the same building where we hold the Day chapter meetings which is affectionately known as Isobel's Room (just ask at the desk). We will meet from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. You may join us for all or part of the workshop. We need people to sew, iron, square up blocks and cut. I will have kits ready to be sewn together.

Please come join us. It is a great way to meet other guild members, and it is a worthwhile cause.

Honor Quilt Workshop:

Thursday, March 21st

10 a.m.-2 p.m.

March 2019 Day Programs

I heard so many great compliments of our speaker last month – thank you again, Corrine Vance, for your fabulous lecture!

We will have a visiting lecturer this month – Penni Domikis, owner of Cabin in the Woods Quilters, a quilt pattern design company established in 2003, in Fredericksburg VA. Penni has written several books for quilting with scraps and a Civil War sampler, and has expanded into fabric pattern designing. She has developed a reputation for breaking down quilt designs in to manageable pieces for quilters of all skill levels, following her company motto, “Make it simple, ...but make it with style!” She loves meeting quilters as she teaches workshops and at quilt shows and lectures at guilds all over the country. Penni houses her office and design studio in a log cabin reconstructed by her husband after its loss in a 1999 fire, thus the name of her company.

Penni’s topic is “Information Overload” to explore how to navigate the many resources and demos and articles you read about quilting. There is so much information out there, how do you know who to listen to? Penni will share her favorite do’s and don’ts from her personal quilting journey.

- Workshop for this month – Penni Domikis will teach a technique of foundation paper piecing with curves, how to make them lay flat, via her pattern called “Pickle Dish”. The class will include a kit with templates and pattern, a deal at $40 total. The class will be from 1-4 p.m., following our Day Meeting in the sewing classroom down the hall of the Community Center building.
- Workshop for April – Interest for this workshop has been astounding, we have decided to open up the workshop to 30 spots max, so now there are only three spots left for this unique class from the Barn Quilt expert, Suzi Parron. She will give us a lecture and then a workshop to make your own 2-foot square wooden barn quilt. The class costs $45, includes supplied prepared wood pieces and paints. The workshop will be at Grafton Christian Church, after our meeting April 12th at 1:30 – 4:30-ish. Sign up will be available at the March meeting, please bring your cash/check when you sign up. Those who were on the waiting list are now included in the class, so also bring your money at our March meeting.

- Quilts will be due on Friday, November 8 and need to be at both the day and night meetings for voting.
- Yvette Cienski still has quilt show pins. $2 each.
- Programs—Maggie Wampler—Our Speaker for the April night meeting will be Jackie O’Brien, she is a Deb Tucker Instructor. She will be teaching several workshops southside that week, contact Maggie if you want details.
- Service Projects—Kim Beatley—Sherry Behun—Please continue to make fabric hearts, baby quilts, bereavement quilts, lap quilts.
- February birthdays were acknowledged.
- Terry Hanson read us a poem, “Gonna Be a Bear”.
- Door Prizes were distributed.
- Program—Members that had a quilt tool that they especially liked were asked to bring the tool to the meeting. We collected in small groups so the member could explain the tool, how it worked and why they liked it.
- Monthly Mini—Joy Duke—Tonight’s MM winners were: table topper/wall hanging, Sharon Hamlin; two quilting books, Peggy Taylor; Minki quilt kit, Joyce McKeel; Christmas stocking, Jeanne Surber.
- BOM Drawing winners were: Carol Pittman and Nancy Shrout.
- Show and Tell which included the items made from Donna Dooley’s Selvage class.
- The meeting adjourned at 8:27 p.m.
- Thanks to the members that came early to help set up the room and the members that stayed after the meeting to put it back in the original setup.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan Waddles
Night Secretary

Thank you!
Janette Doucette

Small Service Projects Update

In February we had seventeen baby quilts, 10 lap/throw sized quilts, 100 fabric hearts, and 19 pillowcases turned in. Gala made a delivery to Riverside Hospital on February 15 of six lap quilts for their cancer patients, four throw size quilts for the No One Dies Alone (NODA) program, seven baby quilts and 50 fabric hearts. They have increased their estimate for the need of NODA quilts from twelve to twenty per year. A delivery will be made to CHKD of the remaining ten baby quilts and 50 fabric hearts. The pillowcases were given to Jeanne Surber for delivery to Blue Crab Quilt Company. Thank you to the many members who continue to support these projects.

- Small baby quilts for families are in need at Riverside Hospital and comfort quilts for babies in CHKD NICU palliative care.
- A good size for these quilts is approximately 30" x 36".
- Lap/throw sized quilts for Riverside chemo patients and NODA program.
- Fabric hearts for Mothers with babies in NICU at Riverside and CHKD.

Members of the Service Project Committee are Joan Cochran, Maggie Haley, Ellen Wood, Brenda Smith, Kim Beatley and Sherry Behun.
