

AMY MOYERS, MSW/LCSW, is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker. Amy obtained her Bachelor's degree in Social Work in 2010 from Western Kentucky University. She obtained her Master's degree in Social Work from WKU in 2016. Amy completed requirements for LCSW licensure in December 2018. She currently practices as an adult, child and family therapist in the Logan County office of Wilson Counseling.

Amy's primary therapeutic approaches include Cognitive Behavioral Therapy and multiple types of expressive therapy. She has nearly 10 years of experience working with families and children in the helping profession. She has provided case management and crisis intervention services for children and families in foster care and worked conducting child abuse/neglect investigations, as well as ongoing services with the Cabinet for Health and Family Services. Amy has experience in group instruction and facilitation, including support groups and therapeutic training for foster parents. Amy has completed more than 600 hours of social work related trainings, in addition to the 900 hours for her Bachelor's and Master's program internships. Amy has extensive experience with working with individuals and families in crisis situations, linking families to community resources, collaborating with community partners, and advocating for those that she serves.