PROPERTY

All property owned by you and your spouse, or in which either or both of you have an interest, must be considered. The following pages provide for information on various types of property. Please provide as much information as possible, particularly the values. List the value under the appropriate column based on ownership. For example, if the residence has a value of $50,000 and is jointly titled, put the $50,000 value in the "Joint" column, nothing in the "Spouse A" or "Spouse B" column; or, if each of you own stock in your name, put the values in each applicable column. If there is not enough space, add pages or use the back of pages.

Your Estate Plans: Spouse B

The most important part of our work is ensuring that your plans and desires are carried out. Your thoughts and plans, both generally and specifically, are of utmost importance.

In general terms, who should receive your property and on what terms (outright, in trust, other)?

If you have minor children, who would you prefer to act as guardian if both parents are deceased?

Who should serve as Personal Representative and backup(s) of your estate?

Who should serve as Trustee and backup(s) for any trusts?

Most people have certain items of their property they want to leave to certain individuals. Items of personal property (jewelry, china, guns, etc.) can be handled by a list separate from the will or trust. What items, if any, do you want to give to specific persons under your will or trust?

If any of these items are subject to a debt, is the debt to be paid by the recipient or your estate?

If any estate or inheritance taxes are due, should those be paid by the persons receiving your property or by your estate?

Do you have any money amounts you want given to others (individuals or charities)?

Burial instructions (cremation, specific funeral arrangements):

Anatomical gifts to take effect at death (gift of your body for education, research, or advancement of medical science, transplants, etc.):
