Streambank Erosion Management

Monday, October 22nd - 9:30 am to 1:00 pm

Robert Barr, IUPUI Research Scientist & Silver Jackets

The Silver Jackets group has been studying the streambank erosion in the Whitewater River Watershed and throughout Indiana for many years. They have just completed a streambank erosion manual that will be made public this fall. This workshop will overview the manual and provide information on how to go about addressing streambank erosion. See agenda below:

Registration - 9:15 a.m.

Introduction - 9:30 a.m.

Fluvial Erosion Hazard Concepts - 10:00 a.m.

Data Gathering & Problem Identification - 10:30 a.m.

Break - 11:00 a.m. – 11:10 a.m.

Analysis and Design - 11:15 a.m.

Project Implementation - 11:45 a.m.

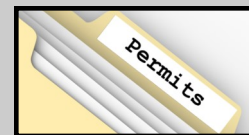

Case Studies and Discussion - 12:15 p.m.

Final Remarks/Wrap up - 1:00 p.m.

Stream Permitting and Local Stabilization Site Suggestions

Thursday, November 1st - 9:30 am - 12:00 pm

IDEM, IDNR, and USACE & Robert Barr

Streams can be regulated by more than one government agency and the permitting processes can be confusing. There will be agency representatives from each of the agencies present to review their program, jurisdiction and permitting process. Robert Barr will be coming back to discuss and recommend stabilization techniques for some local sites and situations. See tentative agenda below:

Registration - 9:15 a.m.

Indiana Department of Environmental Management - 9:30 a.m.

Indiana Department of Natural Resources - 9:55 a.m.

US Army Corps of Engineers - 10:20 a.m.

Q/A & Break - 10:45 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

*Local Stabilization Site Recommendations - 11:00 a.m.

* Maybe held inside or travel to sites - weather depending

Please call 765-647-2651 x 3 to RSVP by Oct. 26th

WHITEWATER RIVER WATERSHED NEWSLETTER

Whitewater River Watershed Cost-Share and Educational Opportunities

The Whitewater River Watershed has experienced a lot of changes due to the heavy rain events over the years. The magnitude of the streambank erosion problems seem to get worse every year. The watershed and its partners will be holding 2 stream workshops this fall. The workshops are open to the public and county officials to learn how to address and reduce streambank erosion and the proper permitting procedures required by IDEM, IDNR, and the Army Corps of Engineers (see more details on back). For those of you that have a private pesticide applicator's license or would like to learn more about local programs, equipment safety, and weed management for hay & pasture, you should attend the Conservation Tillage Meeting. PARP credits will be available (see below for more details).

The Whitewater River Watershed project still has cost-share money available for landowner/operators in the watershed area. Anyone located in the high or medium priority areas are now eligible to receive 70% cost-share to install best management practices up to $8,000 per applicant. All practices must be completed according to NRCS (Natural Resources Conservation Service) FOTG (Field Office Technical Guide) specifications. Cost-share payments are reimbursed and typically takes 4-6 weeks after paperwork is sent to IDEM. Landowners are responsible for paying for all materials and contractors after the work is completed. All practices and paperwork must be completed and submitted by January 2020. If you have any questions or are interested in applying please contact Heather Wirth, Watershed Coordinator at 812-212-1066 or heather.wirth@in.nacdn.net
