11th & 12th April 2015

This is the first Training Event of the season, set in the grounds of Ickworth House Park. This event is sponsored by the National Trust at Ickworth House, it will therefore be a full public event.

This event will include training on all aspects including your weapon proficiency tests. This is the first event of the season where we will practise for Waterloo for all units NA and other non NA.

Please note we will be helping a film company make a documentary on the Celtic involvement of soldiers at Waterloo and will be filming scenes on Saturday morning and I hope that units will help with this project as it will help promote our hobby to a large audience, more details will be issued at officers brief.

On Saturday after lunch we will have a large full scale war game of "Capture the flag" and we will use a large section of the grounds, and this will last for one and a half hours and will give both sides time to out maneuver their opponent under the watchful eye of marshals, I hope all units take part in this and more details will be given at first morning briefing.

On Sunday we will have a large skirmish in front of the public on the usual field next to the camp.

Unit commanders meeting, which will be held at 08.45 hours on Saturday morning. At this meeting a full event brief will be given which can then be transmitted to unit members.
