

Daily in Your Presence
Day 12
El Roi

The LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.
Psalm 121:8

From the Father's Heart

My child, do not be afraid, even when you are alone. You are never out of My sight. You can never be lost from My presence. At all times you are under My watchful eye. Listen closely, and I will tell you which direction to take. Read My words. Like a flashlight in the dark, they will light the way for you--one step at a time.

A Grateful Response

At times, my eyes are blind to the dangers ahead. Emotion-ally and physically exhausted, I look to You, my source, to guard me. Like an ancient sentinel on guard for the enemy, You alert me from Your watchtower. Your angels are before me, behind me, and beside me.

Simple Truth

The journey is not so hard when your eyes are on the Lord.
