Extreme Hardship Evaluation Disclosure

I understand that the extreme hardship mental health assessment and summarizing report that I will or have undertaken with Nicole Story, EDS, MED, LMFT, LMHC at Oceanside Family Therapy & Assessments is conducted solely for the purpose of assisting the immigration court/INS/U.S Citizenship or Immigration Services (USCIS)'s decisions in my relative's case.

I understand that this report is not intended for me personally and is to be furnished directly to the immigration court/INS or U.S Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) via my attorney. Therefore, if I do request a copy of this report I acknowledge that it should be presented by and discussed with a licensed Psychotherapist, and that the content released about me to the court may be emotionally or psychologically damaging if I do not consult with a licensed Psychotherapist to review the results.

This report is intended for forensic immigration court cases or UCSIS petitions only, and Nicole Story, EDS, MED, LMFT, LMHC at Oceanside Family Therapy & Assessments is acting as an impartial 3rd party evaluator, not as my treating mental health therapist. However, if I do request a copy of the report I will request a brief consultation to review the implications of the evaluation and report.
