

Leo Lazzo - Teacher 1963-1995; Math

The only teaching assignment I ever had was at Southeast.

Southeast Memories

My Advanced Algebra classes in the late 1960s and early 70s were memorable. These were very good and intelligent students. It was a pleasure to enter the Advanced Algebra classes each day.

Teachers I remember: Donald Ross, Roy Becklean, Miss Thurston, Mr. Adams, Harvey Oxman, David Jones, Mr. Hannah, Mrs. Gale, Mr. Rodgers

In addition to my math classes, I was freshman basketball coach ('62-'63) under Coach Nate Roitman.

My most vivid and sad memory is of the racial unrest in the early 1970s. I also remember when magnet schools began under the State of Missouri.

Outside of School

Important current events while I was at Southeast included the assassinations of President Kennedy and Martin Luther King.

I lived at 5327 Harrison, KCMO and then 5116 Reinhardt, Roeland Park, KS during my time at Southeast. I was busy raising my family and with part-time employment (Safeway, Food Barn).
