

AMATEUR SPORT SUICIDE PREVENTION CONFERENCE | TENTATIVE PROGRAM BROWARD | May 19-20, 2020 | 8:30am :00am

Proactive Insights & Approaches

Day 1:

Primary 1-Hour Open Forums [Highly Interactive Projection for 6 Sessions] | Proactive Approach and Map Designing

Theme: Sports Is A Pathway, But Not The Only Way"

- ⇒ Career Pathways: Creating Awareness of Alternatives Paths Discussion will focus on what are the choices, paths and types of lucrative, income-producing activities that are available in professional athletics. Presentation create on-site how to bridge understanding of a career in the Sport Industry. Helping students "to see their future" with realistic checklists with creative experiential programs and journals.
- ⇒ What Are The Lucrative Careers In The Sports Industry, Working With The US. Department of Labor & Statistics How to find the highest paid careers in the industry, or what other scholarships can be included in the legacy partners foundations, who hires them, and exploration of transformational change, effects and insights, proactively approaches.
- ⇒ Developing Positive Mindsets On Why Career Planning Should Have Meaning Presentations on how to design career/portfolio plans. Identifying alternatives for the young athletes, working a "game plan" for furthering their prospects fin a Sport career in the Sports Industry and allied services/products, aligning with international suicide prevention, cultural societies, children services councils and associations.

Luncheon Keynote Speaker | "Sports Is A Pathway, But Not The Only Way"

Day 2:

Designing The Game Plan With An Honest Approach | All Contributors | Q&A |

- ⇒ As speakers, presenters, trainers and panelists evolved, we are organizing the full program's overall topic discussion. Every specific area will have a purposeful, impactful and meaningful learning outcome. We will be utilizing World Health Organizations/Pan-American Health Organization alliances to design and assist perspectives.
- ⇒ There is one particular forum/session titled "The Superintendents, Coaches & Athletics Associations," Forum. Therein discussion focuses on creating, organizing attainable plans of

CONFERENCE ON SUICIDE PREVENTION IN THE CONSTRUCTION & EXTRACTION INDUSTRY
OPENS On May 21-22 being organized in Miami-Dade County